

DEADSHOTS WITH THE PISTOL

Veteran Jim Conlin Talks About the Famous Marksmen of New York City.

Young Men of To-Day More Expert Than Those of the Past Generation.

Twenty-Three Goatskins Who Can Hit the Bull's Eye With the Greatest Ease.

A group of young club men, whose forms were wreathed in a fog of powder smoke, and just ceased firing 44-calibre bullets at an acre of spades set edge-wise on the bull's-eye target in a range in an upper Broadway shooting gallery the other night, says the New York Sun, when veteran Jim Conlin got them all interested at once by suddenly exclaiming: "That's fine, boys. And by the way, you've all no doubt read the stories of the wonderful dead shots that astonished their fellow men in the old days when duelling was the gentlemanly way of settling serious disputes between gentlemen."

"Yes," chimed the young bloods in interested chorus.

"Well," continued the grizzled veteran with enthusiasm, "those dead shots couldn't hold a candle to the gentlemen marksmen of this very day. Right in this very town we have a heap of men who could shoot them full of holes, so to speak, in no time at all. Why, I can call you off this minute twenty well-known men whose skill as dead shots no marksman who ever lived could excel."

"Let's hear the names," cried the club men, crowding around the old marksman.

"Certainly," responded Mr. Conlin. "To begin with, there's Pierre Lorillard, Jr. He can pick up a duelling pistol, and at the same time, without standing at twelve paces from the mark, can put a dozen bullets in concession inside of a four-inch circle. I take this as a standard of deadly marksmanship, for if it were made who was the mark he would fall dead instantly every time. Young Mr. Lorillard's equals in this feat are the following gentlemen: Frank H. Lord, a New Yorker, who is at present travelling in England; Dr. H. W. Wickham, a physician; Charles F. Jones, who was one of the contestants in the first Racket Club amateur tournament, and who is almost an expert with his own gun; Major W. H. Pryor, the star marksman of the Twenty-second regiment; George Bird, the revolver crack of the Kidder Shooting Club; St. Nicholas club; W. W. Wickham, Eugene Higgins, a son of the carpet manufacturer; William M. Chase, the artist; D. A. Davis, the merchant of the drug imports district; Senor A. Fernandez, a Cuban importer who, by the way, is ambidexterous, and can shoot with equal ease with either hand and make a dead shot; J. B. Miller, of 518 Fifth avenue; W. C. Southwick, of the real estate fraternity; Senor Bonaldi, who is a Spanish poet, as well as a diplomat in the consulate; J. N. Winslow, a lawyer; and the New York Yacht club and who was on board the Dauntless in the famous transatlantic race with the Coronet; C. F. W. Dambmann, of the Union club, who is a regular home-cooler with firearms of all sorts; L. F. Haggin, who is dainty in his choice of practice weapons; N. Brennan, another of the artist guild; Louis E. Livingston, another Union club crack, whose forte is to fire in the old-fashioned style of Hamilton Burr days, and who can knock the ace spot complete out of the joker card in six shots at twelve paces; Dr. F. C. Moller, who can also annihilate the spots on cards with the greatest ease and certainty; Col. J. J. Dunn, who is now decimating the alligator crop down in Florida; Broker Edward Wassermann, who is with the Cuban in Spain, and is one of the greatest shots among the brokers; and lastly, Jim B. Collins, the real estate lawyer, who can hold up his end as well as any man with the revolver that I know of."

"There are other men, too, continued the veteran, "but at the moment I do not recall any but the leaders. There, I have named you, let me see, twenty-two, if I mistake not; you, twenty-three men, and I tell you they are hummers. I do not believe, in fact I know, you cannot find their superiors anywhere as a group. F. O. Young, the eyed and one-handed champion of the Pacific slope, and A. Johnson, of San Francisco, are two more famous dead shots; but then they were left out, I suppose, as they are not New Yorkers. All the others are Goatskins."

"I recall these names to indicate what tremendous strides have been made in marksmanship, with the pistol in the last two years. It has suddenly sprung into renewed favor as a gentleman's sport in that time. Thirty years ago I remember that it was popular, but then the shooting was done by the twenty-three New York experts in the ante-war days the revolver experts used to shoot at a figure of a man, with a line drawn through the middle of his body along the row of buttons, and eye and heart well marked. Any shot within the line was counted a fatal shot. The war came along and knocked the duelling pistol sort high, and the string took its place. Then came the smooth bore muzzle-loading rifle, and after that the 22-calibre cartridge rifle. I believe that I introduced in New York the first rifle in this pattern ever used in a rifle gallery. Now the rifle is falling into disuse, and the duelling pistol is all the rage and the only proper thing for gentlemen marksmen to handle in a gallery."

All about Mr. Conlin were ranged on the walls large frames containing pistol targets made of cards and tiny bull's-eye targets. A noticeable feature of the display was the number of cards that were cut in half in a jagged line. They had been split in two with a single bullet fired when the thin edge of the card had been presented to the marksman's eye at twenty paces, who bore the name of some of the most famous revolver shots of the present generation.

Unsurpassed in the World.

The vestibuled trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, running daily between St. Paul and Minneapolis and Milwaukee and Chicago, are the perfection of modern railway equipment, and are unsurpassed in the world. They consist of elegant day coaches, Pullman's latest and best sleeping cars and the finest dining cars. All classes of tickets are honored on these trains and the rates are no higher than by other lines. It is for this reason that discriminating travelers patronize this company and insist that their tickets read over its line, as they naturally want the best service for their money.

Heretofore Strength.

Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at intervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and abstention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by a wise regard for sanitary living, and for the protection against disease which timely and judicious medical treatment, so also it may be lost through prolonged sedentary labor, unintermittent mental strain, and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate source of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition, then, or in any way induced, and for its offspring, a failure of muscular and nerve power, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the prime and most genial of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of flesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Incipient malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it.

Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were deranged and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. She writes W. C. Hamrick & Co. of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience, is Electric Bitters." "Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at R. S. Hale & Co.'s drug store.

Winter Excursions to California.

On the 15th day of every month the Northern Pacific Railroad company will sell excursion tickets to San Francisco and return at $75 to Los Angeles and return $94. These tickets have an extreme limit of six months from date of issuance and can be used going any time within sixty (60) days from date of sale. Stop-overs allowed at any point between the going and returning—within limit of ticket. Excursionists have choice of two routes from Portland—by steamer, or by rail, via the famous Mount Shasta route.

Bear in mind that the Northern Pacific is the only line running through sleeping and dining cars to the Pacific coast.

What a Fortune.

Is a good healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes for a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face, and a dark greasy skin. One bottle of BEGG'S DRUG PURIFIER and BLOOD MAKER will restore the organ to its natural and healthy state, and cleanse the blood of all impurities. It is meeting with wonderful success. We guarantee every bottle. R. S. Hale & Co., Druggists.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cathartic and makes no tensions that every bottle will not substantiate.
